change.

The earliest is mentioned in one of the books of the Shu Ching, where it is recorded that in the reign of Chung K'ang, the fourth Emperor of the Hsia dynasty, there occurred an eclipse of the sun which had not been predicted by the astronomers, who were alleged to have been drunk and to have neglected their duties. Hence the customary rites for delivering the sun, which should have been arranged in advance and superintended by the astronomers, were in the emergency performed by other officials without Drew will be seen in "The Cub and for the public All-Star Scamper, to be given by the White Rats at the Manhattan Opera House for a single per-the astronomers.

The wedding will probably take place next

No recent engagement is of greater interest on the Heights than that, made known last week, of Miss Helen Y. Judson and George Elton Parks. Miss Judson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry I. Judson, whose town house until a year or two ago was at 116 Willow Street. Miss Judson was in the bridal parties at many of the fashionable weddings of a few seasons ago, among her most intimate friends being Mrs. Colby M. Chester, jr. (Jessie Campbell Moore), Mrs. Joseph E. Davis (Mollie Maxwell) and the Misses Madeleine Sands and Marion Litchfield. The Judsons live at 777 Madison av., and are spending the summer at Oyster Bay.
